

CHILD LABOR NOT SERIOUS SAY WORKERS

Employment in This State During School Hours Very Small Problem

Employment of children in the cities of North Dakota during school hours is not a serious problem, according to the workers. The Children's Bureau of Washington, D. C., in their report upon industrial conditions for children in the state. During the last school year the members of the commission investigated conditions in the principal child employing establishments of Fargo, Grand Forks and Minot. Its investigation was to detect, if possible, illegal child labor and the report admits it found laxity in the enforcement of the law.

The forty-six establishments visited, says the report, "only thirty-seven children under sixteen years of age were found to be working. Of these children, twenty-three were employed in stores, usually grocery stores; of the remaining fourteen children eight were employed by telegraph companies as messenger boys. Sixteen children were under fourteen years of age."

While admitting that the child labor problem in cities is not bad, the Children's Bureau Workers are emphatic in their disapproval of the disregard of law found.

"The fact that the child labor problem is not a large one does not, however, excuse the laxity in enforcement of the child labor laws which the inspection shows," continued the report.

While the child labor laws lay down standards which are higher than those in effect in many states, little or no provision is at present made for the enforcement of the law. No state agency is held responsible for its enforcement, nor has any system of factory inspection as yet been developed in the state. The local school authorities, through the employment certificate provision, are in a position to insist that at least the age, educational and certificate requirements are met but the importance of this provision and the need of its enforcement have not as yet been recognized by local school officials. In the three cities included in the study only one official responsible for the enforcement of the certificate law was found even to know of its existence when interviewed by the Bureau agent.

"Of the thirty-seven children found at work none had employment certificates, though certificates were required by law for the occupations in which 31 of the children were engaged. Moreover, about half the total number of working children are employed in violation of one or more other provisions of the child labor law. Thus there are sixteen violations of the minimum age provision of the law, eighteen of the hours provision and seventeen of the night work provision."

Of the forty-six establishments visited, twenty-nine showed violations of the state child labor law. According to the statement made by employers, few were aware of the provisions of the law.

Of the places employing children, thirty-eight were in Fargo, with a total list of 286 children. Four were in Grand Forks and four in Minot, the Grand Forks institutions employing sixty-three children and the Minot organizations one less.

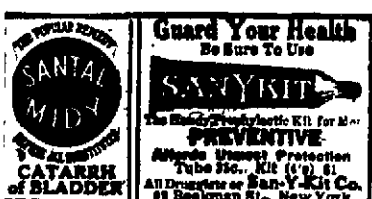

The number of places employing children and the total number employed, totalling 421 in the three towns follow:

Industry	No. of Firms	No. of Children Working
Fargo—
Manufacturing	4	31
Mercantile	28	204
Groceries	17	45
Dry goods	4	99
Drugs	1	7
Miscellaneous	6	53

Grand Forks—
Manufacturing	2	80
Dry Goods	1	16
Telegraph	1	1
Minot—

The investigators enumerated sixteen firms violating the state laws and one violating federal laws regarding ages, eighteen violating state and three federal laws regarding hours and seventeen violating state and one federal statutes regarding night work. The state and one federal violation was reported from Grand Forks and one state violation from Minot, the other instances being in Fargo.

A FITTING PRAYER

THE WHITE HOUSE, WASHINGTON

The increasing enthusiasm with which our people join in the annual observance of Armistice Day enforces the conclusion that it is destined to be one of the notable anniversaries in our calendar, and indeed it well deserves to be all of that, for it marks the victorious termination of our Nation's most impressive participation in the affairs of the world. We shall not go amiss if we seek to make our observance of this anniversary, not only this year but every year hereafter, an occasion for appraisal of our relationship to and participation in those wider concerns which involve the welfare of all mankind. I think we have come to realize, as a Nation, that we cannot hope to avoid obligations and responsibilities, often arduous and burdensome as part of the price we must pay for our fortunate relationship to the com-fraternity of the Nation. It will be greatly to the national benefit, I am sure, if those who most intimately participate in the events of the great world, and among them I, of course, include particularly the men of the over-seas forces, shall always keep in mind the fact that their noble service to their country and civilization, has imposed upon us a duty to recognize that henceforward we must maintain a helpful and sustaining attitude in all the broader relationships that involve the nations. Our first duty withal, indeed be to our own, but that duty cannot be adequately discharged in narrowness and selfishness. That we may be guided to a just judgment of the time and occasion for further proof of our interest in the common cause of humanity, and in choosing the methods whereby to discharge the obligation thus created, will be, I am sure, a fitting prayer for this Armistice anniversary.

The second payment was $30 for every month spent in the service, the money to be used for vocational training, and not more than $1,000 to be given to each man. 4,000 accepted this form of bonus. The third plan gave $30 a month for every month spent in the service to those men who were disabled.

commerce of the British to facilitate her return toward prosperity. Considering the extent of her losses, however, she has made remarkable progress.

Germany

For political change, though all have experienced it, no country in western Europe has anything to offer in comparison with what Germany has undergone.

Rated at the time the war broke out by an imperial dynasty which seemed as firmly established as any in the world, the country is a republic today, and with small prospect, despite some reactionary mutterings, of a return to anything like the old system to say nothing of the fallen royal house.

Financially the situation leaves a great deal to be desired. President Ebert and Chancellor Wirth talk plainly of national bankruptcy unless the Allied reparations terms are materially modified.

In the matter of re-establishing her industries the republic has surprised the world, although her production clearly falls short, perhaps by half or more, of the volume it was believed she was about to attain.

Italy

Italy has had turbulent political conditions to deal with ever since the war ended.

The people were dissatisfied with the territorial award made to their country by the peace conference. There was, for a time, much communistic sentiment throughout the kingdom. This the patriotic organization known as the Fascisti was formed to combat.

Premier Orlando, who was in office when the war ended, was driven out by popular outcry against terms he was forced to accept at Versailles. Premier Facta, less than a month ago had to resign in the face of an uprising of not much less than revolutionary proportions engineered by the Fascisti; and the leader of this formidable group, Benito Mussolini, was installed in his place, virtually with dictatorial powers.

Russia

In Russia the overturning has been complete of all.

The czar and his family are gone. Not only the old government organization, but the old social order is gone. Civilization, as the western world understands it, seems to have disappeared. Even so radical a regime as that established by Kerensky, when the monarchy was overthrown, was upset by the super-radicals who rule today.

To all intents and purposes Russia has ceased, for the time being, to exist as part of the world.

Others

Of the lesser countries which the war touched it is too soon to say much.

Belgium, deeply as she was stricken, is showing wonderful powers of recovery.

Turkey, driven out of Europe, seems certain to come back, perhaps pretty strongly, considering that the sultan is religious head of the Mohammedan world.

Poland and a brood of new little states in central Europe and the Balkans have their respective salvations to work out.

EXPLANATION OF ELECTION IS DIFFICULT

The matter is being regretted on all sides now, except among the leaguers.

The usual rule in Washington is that the patronage is distributed on the basis of the most recent election, and since North Dakota is sending a league senator to Washington and Ladd becomes the senior senator it is expected that Ladd will have a great share of the appointments to make.

torney for North Dakota. If he is elected it is not improbable that William Lemke will be named to that position. William Prater, who now is in the west, has been rumored as a candidate for the Bismarck position in the event of Frazier's election. H. P. Goddard, Assistant Postmaster Lundquist and C. W. McGraw have been certified by the civil service commission. Congressman Young is expected to send in a name for President Harding to transmit to the Senate in the special session which begins Nov. 20. There Ladd is expected to fight anyone not suitable to him and a reexamination in interest of a leaguer may follow.

The Worker's Right to a "Living Wage"

Every rational human being in this country stands for a wage that will give American workers an American living. President Harding and Secretary of Labor Davis have recently gone further and declared publicly that American workmen should have not merely a "living" but a "savings" wage. In the face of this comes the ruling of the Railroad Labor Board which declares that "the theory of the living wage" if carried to its legitimate conclusion would wreck every railroad in the United States and if extended to other industries would carry them into communistic ruin." It will be noted that what the Board opposes is not "a living wage" but the theory of "the living wage."

SURPRISES IN MANY WESTERN COUNTY VOTES

Weather Cuts Down Total Vote on Slope and Many Leaguers Suffer Reverses

STARK STILL SOLID

Gives O'Connor and Nestos Majority, But Shipley Is Beaten for the House

The stormy weather in the western part of the state just preceding the election cut down the vote materially. In Stark county 500 less votes were cast than in the primary. The result of the lessened vote was severe reverses for the Nonpartisan league candidates for various county places and a reduced number of votes for Lemke and Frazier.

"Solid Stark" Remains

Stark county retained its name, "Solid Stark," so far as the heads of the Independent ticket were concerned. In 36 out of the 37 precincts of Stark county O'Connor had a lead of 287 votes while Nestos had a lead of 1,119 over Lemke. The vote was: O'Connor 1,849; Frazier 1,532; Nestos 2,118; Lemke 939. In the same precincts E. J. Hughes, Democratic candidate for congressman, had a majority of 313 over J. H. Sinclair.

D. E. Shipley, one of the Independent leaders in the last legislature, who made the race for legislature in the individual column, made a good race but lost. Pius Kopp was re-elected by the largest majority, getting 2,387 votes in 34 precincts. O. H. Starke was second with 1,781 and Herman Raabe was third in the race with 1,778 votes, three being chosen as representatives.

J. L. Hughes, county auditor, was defeated by A. S. Ward of Belvidere in a close race. Frank K. Wanner was elected clerk of court. Sheriff George Brown was re-elected. Peter Spilchal was elected treasurer over John Reuter Jr. Others chosen were: States Attorney, James P. Cain; Register of Deeds, John Lessig; County Judge, Fred Maser; Coroner, A. D. Davis; County Superintendent, H. O. Pippin, all unopposed. W. R. Veigel was re-elected surveyor over W. S. Stratton in a close race.

Approximately 3,300 votes were cast in the election as compared to 3,500 in the primary. There are about 4,000 registered. The bad roads which followed a snow and rain storm kept many farmers from the polls.

Morton County
Every county officers elected in Morton county is an Independent. The most remarkable race was that of Charles McDonald for sheriff, who won on stickers in an eight-day campaign, following the death of Jack Brady. The victory of L. H. Connolly for states attorney was by a strong margin. Bad roads cut down the farmer vote.

Beltinger County
Frazier got 1,127 votes to 632 for O'Connor, and Nestos got 780 to 959 for Lemke. The Most Pioneer-Press league was chosen official paper. County Superintendent Mrs. Martha Bratcher, league, won. Other county officers elected included: Sheriff Gus Buehler; Auditor Henry Noble; Register of Deeds, Wagedorf; County Judge, McCoy; Clerk, Henry Barry. J. K. Murray won for states attorney, 1,028 to 773.

Billings County
Governor Nestos carried Billings county, heretofore league, by a small margin. Miss Mabel Rapp was re-elected county superintendent. Willis F. King defeated O. G. Lindhe for county auditor. Paul Lebo was chosen county auditor.

Slope County
League candidates had their own way in Slope county. Judge Fred White, known all over the Slope for his work for the Red Cross, was apparently beaten for county judge in a close race. C. P. Brownlee, the only other anti-league holding office, was defeated for states attorney by T. T. Hiner, former preacher of Marmarth.

Logan County
The O'Connor-Nestos ticket carried the county. Complete returns gave: Frazier 700; O'Connor 789; Nestos 939; Lemke 495. 26 of 27 precincts gave George M. Young 881 to J. W. Demme 160. The grain grading measure lost 730 to 736 in these precincts. County officers chosen included: County superintendent, Arthur J. Solien; Sheriff, John J. Wentz; auditor, Carl Kazi; treasurer, Andrew Baltzer; clerk, Jacob Rott; county judge, J. J. Silbernagel; states attorney, A. B. Atkins. Kretschmar apparently won over John Wishek for joint senator.

Emmons County
Winners in county fights were: States Attorney, Charles Coventry; treasurer, E. T. Atha; sheriff, Joe Volks Jr.; Register of Deeds, A. H. Irvine; clerk of court, John Buckler; county judge, Adam Thomas; official paper, Emmons County Record, edited by Frank Streeter. The so-called German ticket was successful in most of the county scraps. Nestos had a majority of about 250 and O'Connor lost the county by between 50 and 100.

Grant County
William Nultemeier was elected sheriff of Grant county by a vote of 1,327 to 1,221 over H. M. Carter. The Carson Press was chosen official paper. The league carried the county on the state ticket.

Dunn County
Thomas A. G. Johnson of Killdeer was elected states attorney over T. H. H. Thoreson, league, it appeared with returns about all in, C. J. Hemphill was re-elected county auditor and James Joslin, clerk of court. Miss Marion A. Fleming appeared winner for county superintendent over Miss Marie L. Hill. The Dunn County Farmers' Journal, league organ, was elected official paper, the Halliday Promoter running second and the Killdeer Herald third.

Win for Legislature
In the Thirty-ninth district comprising Billings, Golden Valley, Slope and Bowman counties, Frank Hardy, O. C. Martin and John Quinn, all leaguers, were elected to the house without opposition.

The Forty-eighth district, composed of Dunn, Mercer and Oliver counties, elected Charles Whitmer to the senate and R. H. Walker, G. W. Morton and J. F. Link in the house. All these men are leaguers.

EARTH SHOCKS FELT IN CHILE

(By the Associated Press)
Santiago, Nov. 11.—Severe earth shocks were felt in various parts of Chile shortly before midnight and again early today. From various points in central Chile came reports of houses falling and other damage. A report from Antofagasta north of Valparaiso, said that a tidal wave came in shortly after midnight, smashing small vessels and sweeping over homes of the fishermen and workers.

So far no loss of life has been reported, but communication lines from many points have been knocked out of order. Reports received just before dawn said the shocks were continuing at Lapei, Unadices and Laserna. The latter city was wrecked by a severe earthquake in 1907. The sea was rising there this morning. A dispatch at 2:50 o'clock said a heavy shock lasting five minutes had just been felt at Laserna. It brought down many walls and telegraph poles, putting the city in darkness.

Telephone communications from Laserna to the port of Coquimbo was broken off shortly after 1 o'clock when the operator at Coquimbo left his post upon hearing a report that the sea was advancing inland. At that hour fire was reported to have broken out at Coquimbo.

Additional shocks of intensity were felt here just before 3 a. m.

NUMBER UNKNOWN

Shanghai, Nov. 11.—It seemed apparent today that the number of lives lost in the burning of the river steamer Tai Shing, near here yesterday, estimated at 200, probably never will be learned definitely. No records are kept of the numbers carried by such boats, which daily are jammed with passengers of the poorest coolie classes. Scores of bodies have been recovered and more probably are in the destroyed bulk of the vessel.

TIDAL WAVE FOLLOWS

(By the Associated Press)
Buenos Aires, Nov. 11.—Advices received by the All-American Cable Company here this forenoon, says it is feared the earthquake in Chile caused a catastrophe in Antofagasta. Previous news from Santiago said the earthquake had been accompanied by a tidal wave which swept the fishermen's settlement.

OTHER PLACES FEEL SHOCK

Buenos Aires, Nov. 11.—An unusual earthquake shock was felt in Buenos Aires and in the Argentine provinces in the Andes region, thirty five minutes after midnight this morning. No damage was reported. The All-American Cable lines are interrupted. Later Santiago advices said that while the tidal wave that swept over the houses of fishermen and workers at Antofagasta had smashed small vessels against houses and rocks, no loss of life had been reported. The inhabitants fled in terror.

Dispatches from Val Paraiso said all the land lines communicating with Antofagasta were broken.

Three Undefeated Western Teams Meet Foes Outside

for one or more of the leaders, who then would probably be eliminated from the chase for the big ten title.

General interest throughout the conference is fairly evenly divided between the three big conflicts today. The intense rivalry between the Maroons and Buckeyes, the strained relations between Illinois and Wisconsin as a result of the ineptibility squabble, and the tight Iowa is making to retain the big ten title won last year, adds to the interest in the decision engagements today.

West Point, N. Y., Army and Notre Dame both undefeated so far this season, meet in their annual inter-sectional gridiron tussle with both eleven representing their strongest lineups. The cadets have made much preparation for an anticipated aerial attack from the Hoosier team. Notre Dame won last year's game, 28 to 0.

HOME-COMING AT IOWA

Iowa City, Ia., Nov. 11.—Iowa City was the scene today of thousands of alumni of the University of Iowa, who returned to the city of their school days to witness the annual home-coming football game between Minnesota and the Western Conference champions.

The new stadium which has a seating capacity of 24,000 is expected to be crowded by the time the game starts at 2 p. m. The city has been crowded since noon yesterday and every road coming into Iowa City today was thronged with automobiles loaded with Hawkeye supporters. In coming trains brought in hundreds of others also. The Iowa team benefitted by having no game last Saturday and is in excellent condition for today's battle. Minnesota players stopped at Cedar Rapids, enroute to Iowa City and practiced on Coe field there yesterday afternoon.

A light drizzle began here this morning. Coach Spalding of the Gophers said a wet field would hinder the attack of his team.

HARVARD MEETS YALE

New York, Nov. 11.—Eastern football begins to reach its climax today at Cambridge, Mass. when the first of the "Big three" contests is played between Harvard and Princeton. The outcome generally is regarded as a toss up, with few of the experts willing to risk their reputations by predicting the winner.

On previous form, Harvard appears to shade the Tiger, but in the human, fighting equivalent there is no choice. The crimson, among its victims, numbers Holy Cross, Dartmouth, Centre and Florida, while Princeton's record was established by victories over Colgate, Maryland, Swarthmore and Chicago.

Yale, the other member of the "Big three" will toy with Maryland today in preparation for its tussle with the Tiger next Saturday.

Of next importance on the day's schedule is the Army-Notre Dame annual battle, of interest because of its inter-sectional character, and because the two teams usually play one of the best games of the season.

In the major class also are the games between Penn and Pittsburgh at Philadelphia; Cornell and Dartmouth in New York. The international meeting at Syracuse with McGill of Canada and the inter-sectional clash of Washington and Jefferson and Wabash at Washington, Pennsylvania.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 11.—Harvard and Princeton meet today in the feature football game of the day in the east.

Princeton never has won a game in the Harvard stadium; Harvard never has gained a decision of the Tigers during Bob Esher's coaching regime. Harvard was defeated last year at Princeton and in 1919 and 1920, the teams battled to a tie.

Harvard's greatest test hitherto was in the Dartmouth game when its only touchdown was scored on an intercepted forward pass. Centre has been the only eleven to cross the Harvard goal line. Princeton in its inter-sectional game with Chicago showed an offense powerful enough to bring it from behind to win.

But one woman who won in the primaries was defeated for the North Dakota legislature. The final returns disclosed that Miss Lillian Dinmore of Bismarck, a candidate in the twenty-fifth district had failed of election, he was third in a district electing two members, winning his place over two Democratic candidates.

Forced out of the lead for a short time yesterday when the returns from Independent Voters Association added a fifty-eighth member to their forces when the final returns of the thirty-second district, composed of Eddy and Foster counties were received. In preliminary figures, E. F. Johnson had been conceded the election but the final figures showed that John Burk, Democrat, and Independent Voters Association had received 1,825 votes to 1,805 for Mr. Johnson.

But one woman who won in the primaries was defeated for the North Dakota legislature. The final returns disclosed that Miss Lillian Dinmore of Bismarck, a candidate in the twenty-fifth district had failed of election, he was third in a district electing two members, winning his place over two Democratic candidates.

ARMISTICE DAY

This year we observe the fourth anniversary of the signing of the Armistice which ended the World War.

During the period that has passed since then preliminary gestures have been made toward permanent peace. It is to be hoped that these will be followed by even greater efforts.

Meanwhile we can each provide for ourselves and loved ones that peace and security that financial independence brings.

This Institution is at your service.

"11-11-11"

On this Armistice Day, Nov. 11, the war has been over for four years. It is almost startling, that so much time has elapsed since the German surrender, 11th hour of the 11th day of the 11th month.

Time, which heals all wounds and obliterates all human activities, is rushing the great conflict into the mists of memory.

The world still ferments with troubles, but the outlook as a whole is far better than it was a year ago. There are fewer uncertainties in the situation, and it is becoming obvious that the world is definitely on the way back to the normal conditions of peace. The road, however, will be a long one.

Crises, which threaten to become calamities, still rear their ugly heads periodically. But people are noticing that these crises never turn out as badly as expected; the clouds are more terrifying than the storms that follow.

America is leading all other countries in reconstruction and a return to sane thinking—common sense. We have taken and withstood the shock of industrial depression, natural reaction of the war. Our outlook is bright, where a year ago it was uncertain.

Europe will be slower to recover, for its damage was greater. But conditions over there, while bad, are far better than even the most optimistic hoped for when the last shot was fired in France.

Convalescence from a critical illness requires time, cannot take place quickly by magic. That is the keynote of the European situation, this Armistice Day.

OUR NEW SENATOR

The fate that rules the political world is not unkind to Lynn J. Frazier. He may have thought so when he was recalled from the office of Governor, to which position he was elevated from the broad confines of his grain fields when the farmers' votes rolled over the state with all the speed of a Kansas cyclone, but he surely can not think so now. Among our vagaries when acting in the capacity of the Great Voting Public we have that habit of lifting a man to dizzy heights and then knocking him down from under him, or kicking him down stairs and then gently lift him to a safe resting place far above. So Lynn J. Frazier may feel that the recall was a blessing in disguise and that if he had not been recalled he may have suffered that first defeat at the hands of the Great Voting Public in a campaign for senator instead of in a recall election.

But while Mr. Frazier may smile with satisfaction over the election, it is a very serious matter for him and for North Dakota, and also for the country at large. The U. S. Senate has been called the greatest deliberative body in the world. If Mr. Frazier went to Washington merely as one voice in a well organized majority he perhaps would have little more actually to say about the government than if he were back on the plow. But he enters the senate under unusual circumstances. The Republican control was menaced last winter by the formation of blocs and it now is threatened by them and by the Democrats who scored signal successes in the election. Mr. Frazier probably will be a follower of Senator La Follette. So also on many matters probably will be Senator Ladd, Brookhart of Iowa, Shipstead of Minnesota, and others. This group of senators can tumble the Republican majority when they will, and they may have the opportunity to wield the balance of power on matters of vital import to the country. Senator McCumber's defeat places La Follette within striking distance of the chairmanship of the powerful finance committee, and he has a number of senators to demand the place for him should seniority place him in line.

Mr. Frazier is a farmer, a land-owner, a capitalist in a small way. He declares he is one of the common people and will always work in their interest. It is to be hoped that Mr. Frazier will not become a senator who votes "no" on every question, who believes the world and the United States is all wrong and that the form of government which has buffed the nation into the greatest republic in the world is a fallacy.

COUNTY AGENT WINS OUT

Burleigh county farmers are to be congratulated for the manner in which they supported the proposition of a county agent. The decision was almost unanimous just as was the passage of the Grain Grading Act. There is a feeling that the solution of the marketing problems of the farmer lies largely in the educational work which the North Dakota Experimental station at the Agricultural College can conduct on the farms of the state. The county agent is the link between the A. C. and the farmers. Trained workers are brought into the agricultural sections—not to preach propaganda or to advocate false economic nostrums, but to assist the farmer by informing him upon marketing conditions and scientific methods of soil culture and stock raising.

As the county agents point out, education must precede any successful cooperative marketing or buying. The farmers must build up standard lines of merchandise just like the retailer or wholesaler before profitable marketing upon a co-operative plan can be launched.

The county agent can do much in cooperation with an Association of Commerce to establish the proper kind of relationship between the business man on the farm and the business man behind the counter. He goes into the highways and byways of trade and seeks out new markets for the farmer and often he has not to go any farther than the local retail and wholesale markets of the cities and villages of the county in which the agent operates.

In view of the decisiveness of the vote, the County Commissioners can embark with a clear conscience upon the county agent work and with cooperation from every resident in the county, the work should be productive of great results.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

AS FERRERO SEES THE LEAGUE

Professor Ferrero, well known Italian historian, does not stop to ask himself if the League of Nations has succeeded or failed. He simply takes his point of departure from a firm conviction that it has failed and concerns himself with the reasons for its failure.

There is nothing particularly new in Professor Ferrero's idea, but he is interesting for the way he states the idea. For instance: "The governments were determined to control the League through the delegates, and the end of it has been that all delegates are appointed by the foreign ministers as their representatives, not as representatives of the nations as a whole. The League of Nations is truly a league of officials, not a league of peoples. By making the league an assembly of governmental functionaries all the rivalries and occult influences of old-fashioned diplomacy have been injected into the league deliberations, dividing the League exactly as the governments of today are divided. And as European governments do not know exactly what they want and how they want it, this malady has inevitably seized the League of Nations."

The error of the founders of the League of Nations has been that it is possible to create in the center of Europe a big order of concord and peace when such control and such peace are non-existent in the governments and confusedly contradictory and obscure among the peoples.

In other words, the League of Nations is just a more medium through which the more powerful and ambitious nations of Europe may give expression to old jealousies, rivalries and animosities. The French, British and Italian governments, says Ferrero, wanted neither the League which Mr. Wilson pressed on them, nor the peace which the League was supposed to insure.

Ferrero does not go so far as to say the League of Nations cannot yet be made a beneficent instrument for the stabilizing of Europe and the establishment of international good will. On the contrary, he more than intimates that if its controlling members should bring themselves to a sincere desire for peace they could turn its declaration of principles to practical account, but to do that its constituents must put aside obscure intrigues, diplomatic ambition and territorial cupidity.

The United States did not enter into the League because those who were asked to put it there expected just such an upshot of affairs as Ferrero portrays. The reasons why America held aloof from the League are substantially the reasons why it could not be induced to take an official part in the conferences at Genoa and The Hague.—Minneapolis Tribune.

ONE INDORSEMENT NOT "IN DOUBT"

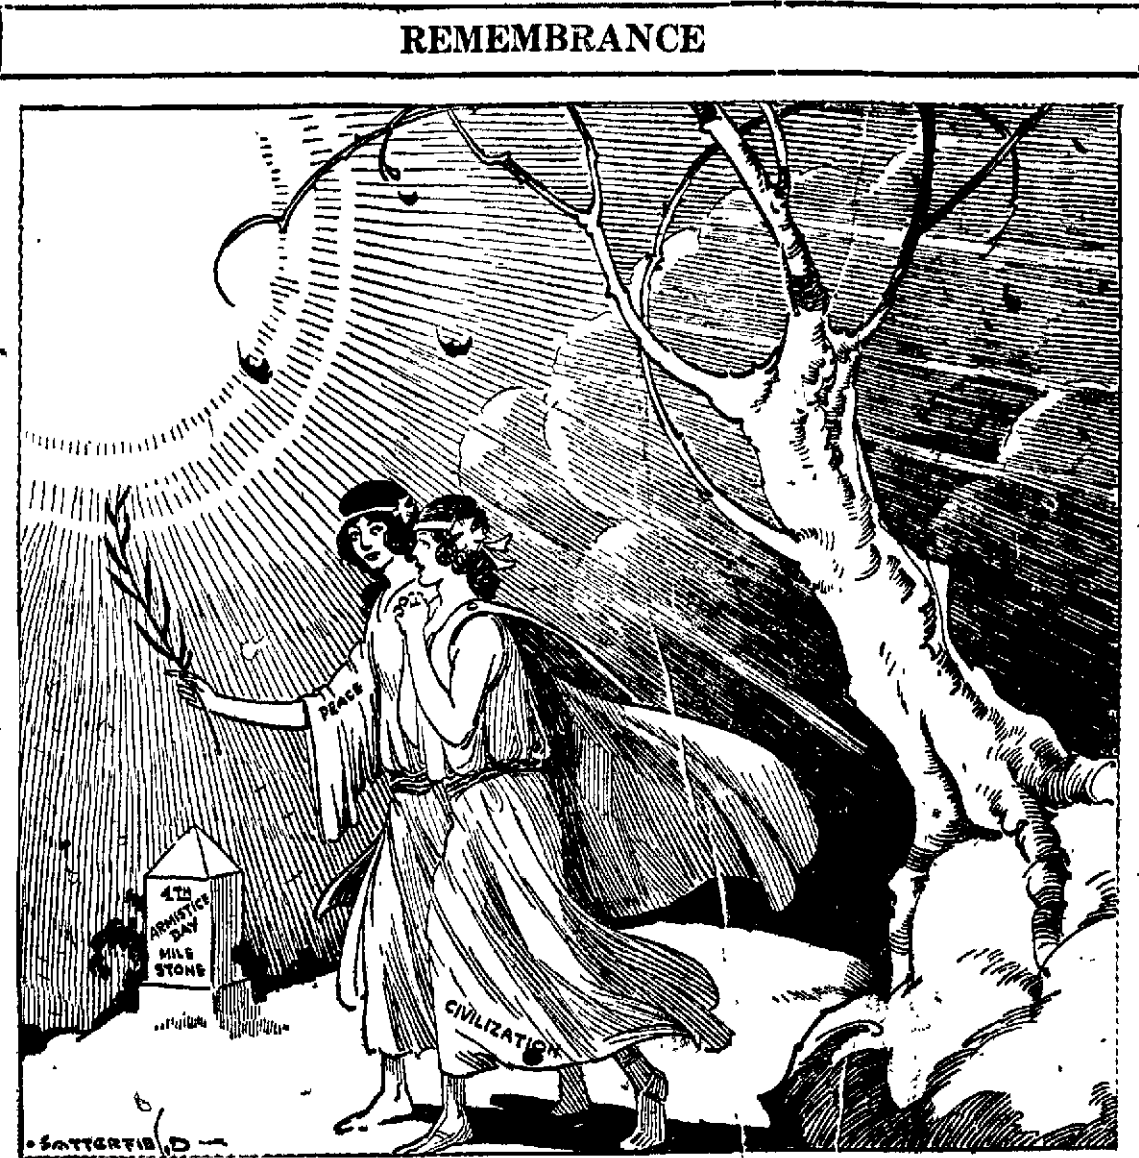

Whether or not we have wholly "finished the job"—and whatever the outcome of the still doubtful contests may be, we have achieved at least an approximation of that aim the independent voters of the state can take a genuine pride in the showing made by Governor Nestos.

The vote on the governorship is quite properly looked upon as the acme of sentiment on state issues. It is the best advertised office, and every voter who visits the polls votes on the governorship whether he puts any other crosses on the ballot or not.

Governor Nestos was given an indorsement which should gladden his heart. "The exact size of his majority is not known, but in probably every county in the state he scored material gains over his majority in the primary election. His total majority will probably be double that given him at the primary, and six or seven times his majority in the recall."

Governor Nestos, of course, was fortunate in the opposition he had and still more fortunate in the kind of campaign Mr. Lemke waged. It was a campaign based solely on personalities by a man whose public record was rebuked at the recall election and who is actually under indictment by a grand jury for his share in the Scandinavian American bank affair. Undoubtedly, by there were many leaguers who refused to vote for Mr. Lemke because of his personal and public record, but this fact cannot detract from the splendid showing made by Governor Nestos.

The vote that he polled was convincing proof that the people of North Dakota have every confidence in the sincerity, honesty, ability and good faith of their governor. In a year of political upsets and surprises, they chose to return him to office with a greatly increased majority, and gave him a mandate to continue the same policies that he has followed since he took office 10 months ago.

CHAPTER III

Stormont followed, entered Clinch's quarters, and presently came downstairs again, carrying Clinch's snow-shoes and a basket pack.

He seated himself near Darragh. After a silence: "Your wife is beautiful, Jim."

"Her character seems to be even more beautiful."

"She's like God's own messenger to Eve."

"And you're rather wonderful yourself."

"Nonsense," said Darragh. "I've given my wife her first American friend and I've done a shrewd stroke of business in nabbing the best business associate I ever heard of."

"You're crazy but kind."

"I hope I'll be some good."

"One thing: I'll never get over what you've done for Eve in this crisis."

"There'll be no crisis, Jack. Merry, and hook up with me in business. That solves everything."

"Lord! what a life Eve has had! But you'll make it all up to her, all this loneliness and shame and misery of Clinch's Dump."

Stormont touched his arm in caution: "Eve and Ricca came down stairs—the former now in gray wool snowshoe dress, and carrying her snowshoes, black gown, and toilet articles."

Stormont began to stow away her effects in the basket pack; Darragh went over to her and took her hand.

"I'm so glad we are to be friends," he said. "It hurt a lot to know you held me in contempt. But I had to go about it that way."

Eve nodded. Then, suddenly, recollecting: "Oh, she exclaimed, reddening, 'I forgot the jewel case! It's under my pillow.'"

She turned and sped upstairs and reappeared almost instantly, carrying the jewel-case.

Breathless, flushed, thankful and happy in the excitement of restitution, she placed the leather case in Ricca's hands.

"My jewels!" cried the girl, astounded. Then, with a little cry of delight, she placed the case upon the table, stripped open the embossed cover, and emptied the two trays. All over the table rolled the jewels, flashing, scintillating, ablaze with blinding light.

And at the same instant the outer door crashed open and Quintan covered them with Darragh's rifle.

"Now, by Christ!" he shouted, "who stirs a finger shall go to God in one jump! You, my gentleman friend—you, my friend Smith—turn your damn backs—han's up high!—that's the way!—now, ladies!—back away there—get back or I kill!—sure, by Jesus, I kill you like I would some white little mice!"

With incredible quickness he stepped forward and swept the jewels into one hand-filled the pocket of his trousers, caught up every stray stone and pocketed them.

"You gentlemen," he cried in a menacing voice, "you think you shall follow in my track. Yes? I blow your damn head off if you stir before the hour. ... After that—well, follow and be damned!"

Even as he spoke he stepped outside and slammed the door; and Darragh and Stormont leaped for it. Then the loud detonation of Quintan's rifle was echoed by the splintering of bullets tearing through the closed door, and both men halted in the face of the leaden hail.

Eve ran to the pantry window and saw Quintana in somebody's stolen lumber-sledge, lash a big pair of horses to a gallop and go floundering past into the Ghost Lake road.

As he sped by a whirl of snow he fired five times at the house, then, rising and swinging his whip, he flogged the frantic horses into the woods.

In the dining room, Stormont, red with rage and shame, and having found his rifle in the corridor outside Eve's bedroom, was trying to open the shutters for a shot; and Darragh, empty-handed, searched the house frantically for a weapon.

he dropped on both knees to buckle on Eve's snow-shoes.

Darragh was performing a like office for his wife, and the State Trooper, being unobserved took Eve's slim hands and kissed them, looking up at her where he was kneeling.

Her pale face blushed as it had that day in the woods on Owl Marsh, so long, so long ago, when this man's lips first touched her hands.

As their eyes met both remembered. Then she smiled at her lover with the shy girl's soul of her gazing out at him through eyes as blue as the wild blind-gentians that grow among the ferns and mosses of Star Pond.

Far away in the northwestern forests Quintana still lashed his horses through the primeval pines. Triumphant, reckless, resourceful, dangerous, he felt that now nothing could stop him, nothing bar his way to freedom.

Out of the wilderness lay his road and his destiny; out of it he must win his way, by strategy, by cunning, by violence—creep out, lie his way out, shoot his way out—it scarcely mattered. He was going out! He was going back to life once more. Who could forbid him? Who stop him? Who deny him, now, when, in his pockets, he held all that was worth living for—the keys to power, to pleasure—the key to everything on earth.

In fierce exultation he slapped the glass jewels in his pocket and laughed aloud.

"The keys to the world!" he cried. "Let him stop me and take them who is better man than I!" Then his long whip whistled and he cursed his horses.

Then, of a sudden, close by in the snowy road ahead, he saw a State Trooper on snow-shoes—saw the up-flung arm warning him—screamed curses at his horses, flogged them forward to crush this thing to death, this dared menace him—his object that suddenly rose out of nowhere to snatch from him the keys of the world—

For a moment the State Trooper looked after the runaway horses. There was no use following; they'd have to run till they dropped.

Then he lowered the leveled rifle from his shoulder, looked grimly at the limp thing which had tumbled from the sledge into the snowy road and which sprawled there crimsoning the spotless flakes that fell upon it.

Elect Independents To County Offices

Every officer elected in Morton county is an independent, most of them Republicans. All opposed the League cliques which have attempted to gain control of the county.

While returns are not quite complete, the returns indicate that McDonald for sheriff has 2,885; Strain 1,722; Jensen for superintendent of schools 2,822; Jones 1,825; Mandan Pioneer 1,985; News 1,788.

The latest returns for county commissioner show that Feland in District C has a vote of 336 and Pool 320. In District A the majority for J. W. Stevenson is 53. In District B August Nickelson won by a 100 majority.

Mrs. W. E. Harle entertained about 60 guests, members of the Lutheran Girls' Guild and their friends, at an old fashioned dress party Thursday evening in the social rooms of the church. Entertainment for the evening consisted in a street carnival, with various booths, such as seen at carnivals as features of entertainment. D. C. Mohr and John Sakariassen made a big hit by singing comic songs. Out of town guests included Misses Clara Rugg and Thalia Jacobson of Bismarck.

Dorothy and Donald Peterson, twin children of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Peterson of Mandan received a letter from President Harding in answer to their letter sending him birthday greetings. They are very proud of the following letter which they received from the President: The White House, Washington.

November 4th, 1922.

My Dear Dorothy and Donald:

I am sure you would be surprised to know how many letters I have received from my little friends all over the country, whose birthdays happened to be the same as my own extending their congratulations and good wishes. Of the entire number all of which pleased me very much, your letter was the only one signed by twins. So you see I am doubly appreciative of it as evidence of your thoughtfulness in remembering me. I wish you to know that you both have my thank and very best wishes.

Most sincerely your friend,

(Signed) WARREN G. HARDING.

SMALL HATS DEFY FASHION'S EDICT Officially Banished, Turbans Remain

FASHIONABLE HATS OF THE MOMENT, SHOWING THE FUR-TRIMMED AND THE ALL-FUR TURBAN.

Fashion has made most women lengthen their skirts, often very much against their wills, but is powerless when it comes to dislodging the small hat from favor.

Long skirts demand large hats, the experts say, but women go right ahead ordering small ones, or making them themselves. And therein lies the secret of the popularity of the small hat—it may be contrived at home by any woman with the style sense, even if her knowledge of sewing is most limited.

It is a fact that many of the most smartly gowned women today who buy their gowns of the most expensive modistes take great pride in making their own hats.

Of all types, the easiest to make is the fur-trimmed turban. And this hat is to be the style leader for the next few months. The shops are showing the most fascinating ones that may be easily copied on inexpensive frames.

The new metal brooches are effectively used for crowns, so are the figured silks and the plain velvets or satins that match the fur or the costume with which the hat is to be worn.

Miss Downey will speak from her experience as librarian. She is now state librarian for North Dakota. This lecture is one of a series which has been arranged for the winter on topics in general by persons other than ministers, and are designed to bring to the attention of the public the need of the religious content in all of life.

Thanksgiving Dinner Menu

How the words "Thanksgiving Day" call to mind happy days when families gathered together, and then sad memories when perchance those days are no more!

To set apart a day at the end of harvest when the crops were in and the day of thanksgiving to God for his mercies has been a custom in all countries for centuries. It was spoken of as the Harvest Feasts or Festival.

When the early colonial settlers wished to make a thank offering to God for their new country and home they chose a day in November which should be devoted to prayer and thanksgiving and called it "Thanksgiving Day." Families gathered at grandmother's house, the best of the land's offerings were cooked, and as the people prospered the dinner grew in proportion and tables "groaned" with the goodies.

Always Turkey

The meat chosen for this dinner was that from the turkey, a bird which first was wild, coming from Mexico, and later domesticated.

The vegetables were those grown during the summer and were ready for winter use—the onion, squash, pumpkin, turnips and potatoes.

The pumpkin has always been used for pies and when a pie is made from a good pumpkin, combined with eggs, milk and spices, no better pie can be made. The sweet

"THE STORM" AN EPIC OF THE FOREST

Powerful Stage and Screen Hit Booked for the Capitol Theater

What is more beautiful than the solemn quiet of deep timbered valleys? Or the bizarre mosaics of forest floors?

Always the drama of the open country has held a strong spell for young and old. Great lands, waste lands, Nature's virgin wilderness; the glory of the outdoors holds the fancy of everyone.

The soul of the wanderer turns to the solitude, to "mighty pines and the voice of Silence," or to "a low verandah house in a tope by the sea."

The spirit of the wanderer is in every prosaic citizen. Since the development of Canada and the mad awakening of the Klondike, the glorious beauty of the wooded Northland has been captured by a crop of brilliant novelists and playwrights.

One who found fine drama in the pervading peace of the Northern woods was Langdon McCormick. He wrote "The Storm," a play which took New York by "storm" with its vivid beauty and gripping strength.

This epic of the forests was filmed as a Universal-Jewel special, starring House Peters and directed by the producer of "The Old Nest," Reginald Barker. It comes to the Capitol Theatre on Monday.

Simplicity is the keynote of the forest itself, and simplicity is the predominating feature of the drama. There are only three principal figures in a unique triangular situation. Peters, Matt Moore and Virginia Villi, Josef Swickard, Frank Lanning and Gordon McGee handle minor roles.

The photoplay by Percy Hilburn is said to be an element of beauty. The action was photographed among the mountains of California, and the snowstorm scenes at Bear Lake were made under realistic conditions that almost cost the lives of players.

AT THE MOVIES

THE ELTINGE

Katherine McDonald, the famed beauty of the screen, in her newest Associated First National picture, "Domestic Relations," which will be seen here for the first time Monday at the Eltinge Theatre, has the role of the young wife of an ambitious, self-centered, austere judge who subjects her to the most subtle and torturous treatment and considers that he has done nothing for which he should be censured. And yet this same judge sends to prison a poor laborer who has tortured his wife by restoring to physical force rather than the keener and equally efficacious mental cruelty.

Both judge and laborer are guilty of mistreating their wives, and the showing of "Domestic Relations" will give local playgoers a chance to determine for themselves which of the two men was more guilty.

NESTOS URGES PUBLIC AID

In Statement Asks For Cooperation for Red Cross

Governor Nestos in a statement today urged support of the Red Cross in the annual roll call. His statement follows:

The Sixth Annual Roll Call of the Red Cross begins today and ends on Thanksgiving day, and it is to be hoped and expected that every holder of a membership will renew such membership for the coming year.

The wonderful work done by the Red Cross not only during the war, but in peace times in relieving distress and in giving instant help when to other organization was able to cope with the situation should inspire a quick and cheerful response when the renewal of membership was asked.

We appreciate the work of the Red Cross during the years gone by, and we should realize that with the present membership and effective organization it may become a still greater power for good during the future, and I am confident that the people of North Dakota will show their appreciation of this fact by a ready response when they are asked to renew their membership in the Red Cross.

ENGINEERS IN MEETING TALK BISMARCK NEEDS

Engineers, in their meeting last night, discussed the subject "Now If I Had My Way in Bismarck, I'd—"

Wm. Barneck and J. N. Roherty discussed the waterworks question. Judge A. M. Christianson made a plea for a comprehensive parking system. H. D. Shaft, formerly with the Minot park board told of work done there. J. E. Kauffuss, suggesting formation of other civic units, urged greater use of municipal buildings, particularly the Auditorium, growth of parent-teacher and similar organizations. Wm. McGraw spoke on city planning and Dr. F. R. Smyth discussed the health situation, saying the death rate had risen in Bismarck and that with better sanitary conditions it ought to be reduced.

I wish to thank the voters of Bismarck and Burleigh county for their kindness in supporting me for register of deeds. The only way I can repay it is by handling the work of the office economically and for the greatest good of the people. I thank you. —Fred Swenson.

Baker's Cocoa

is the ideal drink for growing children

Not only does it delicious flavor and aroma appeal to the palate but it supplies the body with a considerable amount of pure, wholesome and nutritious food.

Children, owing to their almost ceaseless activity, frequently require as large an amount of nourishment as adults, and good cocoa is a valuable aid in the carefully arranged diet. But its quality must be good and no cocoa can quite so well meet the requirements of dietitian, physician, nurse or housekeeper as "BAKER'S."

FARGO HIGH WINS STATE GRID HONORS

LOCALS FIGHT HARD AGAINST BETTER TEAM

2 Point Open Field Running
Of Fargo Backfield Too Much for Locals

BIG CROWD IS OUT

1,500 People See Game Which Decides Football Honors
Among High Schools

Princeton's open field running by the Fargo backfield was too much for Bismarck high's football eleven to overcome in the state high school championship contest here yesterday afternoon, and Fargo took the honors back to the Gate City by a score of 19 to 6. The game was played before a crowd estimated at 1,500, which saw the local team go down to defeat but after a great struggle with a team more experienced and faster. The weather was just right for football, but a bit chilly for the spectators, with no wind blowing. The field was in fair condition though sticky.

But for a few breaks in the game the contest was a hard fight through out, and a good part of the time on fairly even terms. The local team got a great cheer when it came back hard after Miller for Fargo ran 46 yards for a touchdown and scored on a short pass to Burke. Alfson at fullback and Capt. Scott at tackle starred in Bismarck's defeat. Alfson was the best ground gainer for Bismarck and smashed the line hard until forced out in the fourth quarter by injuries.

Fargo scored within five minutes after played opened, carrying the ball 70 yards in two plays. Rusch made 35 yards around one end and Miller went around the other on a fake pass in a brilliant run of 45 yards for a touchdown. Bismarck scored after Kline blocked a punt and recovered it. Carrying the ball close to the line, Halloran tossed a pass to Burke for the score.

Score on Pass
Fargo scored again in the second quarter. Fargo recovered the ball on Bismarck's 27-yard line. After three plays a long pass, Rusch to Fisher, netted the score. The visiting team scored again in the third quarter shortly after the opening. A fumbled punt gave Fargo the ball close to the goal and Miller on a short run around Bismarck's right and planted the ball over the goal line.

The Bismarck line was a stone wall most of the time, with Capt. Scott and Kline, tackles, breaking up many Fargo attempts. The local team held Fargo within the five-yard line three times. At times the Bismarck defense stopped the fast Fargo backfield, but at other times the Fargo interference completely boxed the locals' ends and got away for good gains.

A large number of Bismarck houses closed up for the game. The Mandan high school students came over and rooted for Bismarck, and brought a band along to furnish amusement between halves.

WILL CARRY HOPE OF TIGERS

By NEA Service.

Princeton, N. J., Nov. 11.—"Princeton's chances to beat Harvard rest with the success of the Tigers' open game. Princeton must get the breaks and be able to take advantage of them."

There you have the opinion of Coach Bill Roper, the man who is directing the destinies of the Princeton squad. He doesn't predict a victory, but between the lines it is easy to see that he has hopes if his team plays the serial game as successfully as it did against Chicago.

Princeton's line is rather green and inexperienced. That was proved in the Chicago game when the Princeton forwards were outplayed in all except the final period. Roper admits his line is not as strong as he would like to have it. It is a fighting line, however, and he hopes the spirit will make up for the other faults that are sure to crop out.

Princeton must stop Owen if the Tigers are to have much of a chance. Owen is dangerous any time his team gets inside of the opposition's 40-yard line. He is capable of gaining that much distance in a half dozen plays.

It is a difficult thing to devise any method of stopping a hard-hitting back-line Owen, who picks his spots on the line pens them. There is only one thing to do, the line must charge low and grab at everything in sight.

One thing is certain, the Tigers will fight to the last ditch. Princeton spirit won the Chicago game and is sure to play a prominent part in the Tigers' showing against Harvard.

In Gray, whose work at end was a feature of the Chicago game, Halfback Cleaves and Quarterback Gorman, the Tigers will present a trio of great players.

53 yards to Bismarck's 2-yard line. Middaugh went in for Reed, Bismarck guard, La Fluor made 1 yard. La Fluor took it to the 6-inch mark. A fumble left the call there. Watkins failed on the 1-yard line, and Bismarck took the ball. Hahn punted high and it was Fargo's ball on Bismarck's 18-yard line. Caraway made 4 yards. La Fluor took it to the 1-yard line. Caraway failed to go over and the half ended with the ball on Bismarck's 1-yard line.

Score Fargo 7; Bismarck 6.

Second Half
The Bismarck band paraded the field and the high school kids joined in a snake dance. Both teams started the second half with the same line-up that finished the first.

Miller kicked to Hahn, who was stopped on his 30-yard line. Halloran went around end for 6 yards. Brown lost a yard. Alfson made exactly first down. Hahn lost 10 yards on an end run. Halloran made 2 yards. A pass was incomplete. Hahn kicked to Rusch who returned 12 yards to the 47-yard line. Miller made 8 yards. Caraway made 3 yards for first down. La Fluor made 5 through on a cross-back. Miller added 4 more. Rusch made 3 yards for first down. Fargo was off-side and penalized 5 yards.

Rusch failed to go around end. A pass, La Fluor to Caraway, gained first down for Fargo on Bismarck's 18-yard line. La Fluor made 1 yard. Caraway failed and Rusch made 4 on an end run. Miller went around end for 4 1/2 yards, putting the ball on Bismarck's 8-yard line. A pass was incomplete. Hahn punted to Rusch who fumbled. Fargo recovered. Rusch punted to his own 48-yard line. Brown fumbled and lost 4 yards. Miller lost 2 yards on an end run. Rusch punted and Halloran fumbled. Miller got the ball on Bismarck's 13-

RODGERS WINS MAT BOUT IN HARD BATTLE

Defeats Ellsworth Finlayson
In Two Straight Falls
On Steele Card

Steele, N. D., Nov. 11.—Stanley Rodgers of Bismarck, won his wrestling match here last night over Ellsworth Finlayson, also of the capital city in a long and hard fight. Rodgers was victor in two straight falls and had the advantage of Finlayson almost throughout but it took a long time to pin Finlayson's shoulders to the mat. Rodgers won the first fall in one hour and eight minutes with a short arm scissors. The second fall he won in one minute and a half, displaying remarkable speed and quickness in getting his hold on Finlayson.

The Steele wrestling fans gave Rodgers a big hand for his fine exhibition of the wrestling game.

Siki Suspended For Nine Months

Paris, Nov. 10.—"Batting" Siki, Apurton for the crown that sits upon Jack Dempsey's head and was standing where the champions and his beams meet.

Last night the French boxing federation snatched away his title of light-heavyweight champion of France and suspended him from practicing his business in France for a period of nine months. Only a few hours before, the black conqueror of Georges Carpentier had stumbled into another block of hard luck, the British home office forbidding his scheduled fight with Joe Beckett to take place on British soil.

The action by the English authorities was taken because Siki is a colored man and Beckett is white, and it was deemed that "all sorts of passions would be aroused" if they met in the ring. But the ban the French have put on Siki was caused by an overt act. Wednesday night, when he was acting as a second for Ercole De Balzee, he jumped to the ring when his man was knocked out and struck the manager of the victorious battler, Maurice Prunier.

FOLLOW WHEN YOUR BLOOD IS PURE
Here is Advice You Cannot Afford To Overlook

St. Paul, Minn.—"I can highly recommend Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery as a splendid tonic and blood purifier. In my boyhood I was afflicted with breaking out on my face, but after I took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' to tone up my system the pimples disappeared and I have never had any since. I have also known of others who have taken Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery with great benefit as a blood purifier and tonic, and I therefore have no hesitancy in recommending it as a reliable medicine for anyone to take who has impure blood or is in a run-down state of health."—W. OWEN IS STAR OF HARVARD

By NEA Service.

Cambridge, Mass., Nov. 11.—George Owen is unquestionably the star of the Harvard eleven. While the Crimson boasts a crack back field Owen carries the punch, he is Harvard's big threat.

Coach Bob Fisher is grooming Owen for the tilt with Princeton and Yale. He has taken no chances with his outstanding star in the other games.

Against Centre College it was Owen who crashed over the line for the first Harvard score. At the close of the first period with Harvard enjoying a safe margin Owen was taken out of the game and witnessed the remainder of the battle from the side lines.

Don't get the impression that Harvard is a one-man team, far from it. In the back field Fisher has some wonderful material, but Owen is the big star.

In Princeton's game with Chicago the westerners waited for the break, and when it came Fullback Thomas was put to work. He crashed through the Tiger line for three touchdowns, all on straight football, when Chicago got within striking distance of the Tiger goal.

Harvard is almost certain to play a somewhat similar game. Fisher has a tendency to win with straight football if possible. Owen of Harvard is equal to Thomas when it comes to crashing through the line.

Fisher knows that Harvard's line is superior to Princeton and is certain to try to take advantage of this weakness through the plunging powers of Owen.

TRAVEL IS BIG HANDICAP TO FOOTBALL ELEVEN

By NEA Service.

Danville, Ky., Nov. 11.—Charley Moran, famous coach of the Centre College team, was not the least bit surprised when Syracuse defeated Nebraska and Harvard ran roughshod over the husky Florida eleven.

"When a team travels 1,000 miles to play a football game it spots the opposing eleven a touchdown, when the distance ranges around 2,000 miles it means giving a two-touchdown handicap.

"Travel robs a football team of much of its 'pen.' Because the facilities limit the time that can be taken to make the journey it is impossible to give the team rest prior to the game. Then there is the climate and food conditions to contend with. "When a team takes a long jaunt to play a football game the coach can figure he is spotting the opposition a touchdown or two before the start of the game."

Although a great deal of harm is done by certain insects, practically no fruits could be formed without the blossoms-pollinating aid of others and it is possible that they confer still other benefits of which science does not know.

BY BILLY EVANS.

During the world series Jack Dempsey acted as a baseball expert. Like all the other dopesters Dempsey picked the Yankees to win, qualifying Jack for honorary membership in the "fat club."

Dempsey was unquestionably the busiest man in the press box. He wore out a couple of fountain pens photographing baseballs and score cards. Before the close of the series his voice was little better than a whisper from answering questions.

"Who is the huskiest fellow you ever faced?" someone asked Dempsey.

Has Faith in Rioux.

"A fellow up in Canada who as yet hasn't achieved any fame in the ring. His name is Eliezer Rioux," was Dempsey's reply.

Thereby hangs a very interesting

ELIEZER RIOUX.

Dr. Gabbons, a prominent Canadian sport man and a great lover of boxing, is for 30 years been looking for a physically perfect Canadian who might develop into the best of the world.

In Eliezer Rioux, the learned doctor believes he has found such an individual.

After discovering Rioux the doctor put a number of courses of training that reduced his weight from 265 to 215, and his waist measurement from 37 to 33. His chest measurement has been increased a number of inches.

For six months Rioux trained carefully, but never once was he allowed to box. He made his boxing debut with Champion Jack Dempsey.

Glutton for Punishment.

Dempsey said he hit Rioux with his entire repertoire of punches in the one round that he boxed but was unable to floor him. The meeting with Dempsey was to test the courage of the French-Canadian and he came through with flying colors.

It is the intention of Dr. Gabbons to have Rioux take all instruction possible in boxing for about a year and then if he shows something turn him loose on the crop of heavies.

Rioux is 23 years old. His weight is 215 and he is 6 feet 4 1/4 inches in height. His reach is 81 inches.

GRAIN MARKET DISTURBED BY
THE HOLIDAYSCash Wheat Continued at Premiums Over December
Future—Corn Declined(By the Associated Press)
Minneapolis, Nov. 11.—The grain markets Monday the past week were disturbed by the holiday in Winnipeg Monday and in the American market election and Armistice day, resulting in a lack of interest at the end of the week, according to the weekly review of the United States Department of agriculture.Wheat showed strength Monday, Minneapolis December wheat trading at $1.13 3/8, but closing yesterday at $1.11, a decline of 1-1/8 cents since Friday.The government crop report for November indicated a corn crop of 2,396,000,000 bushels, with a farm crop of 178,887,000 bushels. The total of indicated crop and farm remains as compared with the same period of last year, who was reported of 362,780 bushels which with present increase of farm feeding, should tend to firm prices, but the week ended reacted to the product of the greater than the trade expected from recent private estimates. The small visible stocks of wheat in terminal elevators is offset by the unusually large stocks in country elevators.
Stocks in the country houses of the northwestern territory are estimated at 75 per cent of the capacity; private estimates also placed the amount of grain, which has left the farmers lands a considerable more than 50.1 per cent estimated by the government.There has been but little change in the cash grain markets. Cash wheat continued at premiums over the December future, No. 1 dark northern selling from 5 to 21 cents over December. Rye has been dull without much change. Corn dragged because of heavier offerings. Prices for spot corn declined.Minneapolis flour mills are operating about eighty per cent of their capacity, while the car situation has compelled smaller operations at outside mills. Flour prices advanced 10 to 15 cents with the upturn in wheat the first of the week. Flour sales have been only fair and would be better if the car situation would permit of better shipments.Flax has weakened. The government report indicated a slight increase of production. November future declined 3/4 yesterday closing 12c below the price of a week ago.

PREVAILS ON STOCK CURBNew York, Nov. 11.—Professional speculators were in complete control of this week's stock market, prices in which eased up and down with the traders selling stocks on the rallies and repurchasing them on the reactions, awaiting indications of a definite market trend.
The same irregularity prevailed in the bond market, which was featured by the weakness of the European securities.Resumption of pool activities was manifested in a number of stocks. Merchandising shares developed the most attention. May Department Stores, Kroger, Woolworth and Van Rensselaer all being pushed up to new high records for the year during the week.Heavy conversation of Mexico Petroleum stock for Pan American shares in accordance with the recently announced plan virtually removed the former from its position as one of the market's most speculative features. The limited number of Mexican Petroleum shares
now outstanding leads to the belief in many quarters it will soon disappear from the list.Further improvement was shown during the week in domestic business and the industrial situation.
Steel production is now back to seventy-five per cent capacity.
October pig iron production was 28 percent over that of the preceding month, the daily output reaching the highest average of any month since December, 1920.Capital readjustment of large industrial companies was continued
on a large scale during the week, but it failed to excite speculative enthusiasm such as aroused by the Standard Oil distributions of few weeks ago. The sharp reaction followed the first few announcements, apparently had a deterrent effect on vigorous bullish demonstrations in the shares of companies which houses recently announced dividends.Spirited advances in cotton prices took place during the week, trading being particularly exciting following publication of the government's report showing 8,139,000 bales ginned to November 1, December, January, March and May contracts all got above 26 cents a pound.Another sharp break in French, Belgian and Italian remittances,
which were carried to new low levels for the year was attributed at first to the failure of the Berlin reparations conference and to unfavorable developments in the Near East, but the strength of sterling and the subsequent recovery of the continental rates suggested Great Britain was repeating its method of selling its French and other exchange to acquire dollar credits to meet another interest payment on its war debt to the United States this month.Money rates were slightly firmer, due to withdrawal of funds by interior banks.

NEWS OF WALL STREET

(By the Associated Press)
New York, Nov. 11.—Resumption of yesterday's heavy selling movement took place at the opening of today's stock market, prices in all sections of the list being depressed 1 to nearly 3 points. The selling was influenced by overnight Washington dispatches indicating the pressing of tax revision proposals in the new congress which would involve an import on the undistributed surplus of corporations and would also affect stock dividends. Equipment steel, copper and Demical shares were the hardest hit. Dupont broke 5 1/4. There were a few exceptions to the downward trend, notably May Department Stores and Remington Typewriter, each of which improved a point.Renewal of heavy short selling, much of it determine the quality of the buying power, coupled with free offerings of long stock induced by apprehension over the possibility of unfavorable tax legislation in the new congress caused widespread weakness in today's brief session of the stock market. Losses of 1 to 5 points were general, selling pressure being directed principally against the equipments, high priced oil stocks, American Tobacco, National Biscuit, Davidson Chemical, Unified Bated Stores, Dupont and American Cotton Oil, preferred, which were depressed 3 to 6 points.
The closing was weak. Sales approximated 550,000 shares.

SUPREME COURTFrom Cass County
Inga Anderson, Plaintiff and Appellant, vs. The Board of Education of the City of Fargo, a body corporate, Defendant and Respondent.Syllabus: Plaintiff brought an action against the defendant charging it in her complaint with negligence in establishing and maintaining upon its school play grounds, certain apparatus, consisting of several heavy swings and chutes, more particularly described in the complaint, and in appropriate language alleged such apparatus to be a nuisance; and further alleging that her son,
while on the school play grounds,
by reason of such negligence was injured and killed. She claimed damages in the sum of $25,000, and in addition thereto, $200, to cover burial expenses of the boy and for physician's fees.(2) The defendant demurred to the complaint, upon the grounds that it did not state sufficient facts to constitute a cause of action, and the trial court made an order sustaining the demurrer,
from which plaintiff appealed.(3) The order of the trial court was proper, in that the defendant in providing such swings and chutes and apparatus in question for the use of the schools, was acting in a governmental capacity, and therefore, was not subject to a suit, either in an action for damages or otherwise.An appeal from the District

TEAM CAPTAINS IN CLUB DRIVE ENTHUSIASTIC

Hold Meeting and Lay Plans For Getting Big Reorgniza-
tion Drive Under Way

AIDES ARE SELECTED

That the big reorganization campaign of the Commercial Club is creating a lot of interest and whole-some enthusiasm among the citizens of Bismarck, is evidenced by the attendance at the special meeting of team captains held yesterday.

As already announced this column, Colonel C. R. Simpson and his lieutenant colonel of teams, P. R. Fields, selected the four men who are to act as leaders of the four divisions. These four men in turn selected the following men to act in their respective divisions as team captains.

Division "A"—Major F. J. Grady.
Team No. 1—Capt. J. P. French.
Team No. 2—Capt. B. M. Dunn.
Team No. 3—Capt. Obert Olson.
Team No. 4—Capt. A. W. Gusner.
Division "B"—Major J. A. Graham.
Team No. 5—Capt. S. S. Boise.
Team No. 6—F. L. Moule.
Team No. 7—Al Rosen.
Team No. 8—F. E. Hedden.
Division "C"—Major H. T. Murphy.
Team No. 9—Capt. H. J. Dueme-land.
Team No. 10—Capt. W. E. Lahr.
Team No. 11—Captain not yet appointed.
Team No. 12—Capt. H. S. Dobler.
Division "D"—Major L. K. Thompson.
Team No. 13—Capt. E. V. Lahr.
Team No. 14—Lew Cravell.
Team No. 15—S. W. Corwin.
Team No. 16—B. O. Ward.

At the luncheon yesterday, these men sat around a table and in turn, each selected the names of six or seven men to call on to invite to act as lieutenants or team workers. Each captain chose men who have taken part in other campaigns, and who have demonstrated their ability as workers in a good cause.

The plan to divide the city into four districts was explained by J. H. McLaughlin, the American City Bureau representative, and the captains were urged to make reports on the teams to campaign headquarters as soon as possible. Every team must be filled up to full strength by Tuesday noon so that detailed in-structions can be mailed out to all the workers.

The names of the lieutenants who have been selected will be announced at that time.

Although the time at which all the team captains must have their work-ers signed up was set for Tuesday noon, a pace is being set by some of the captains that will make the rest of the leaders hurry to equal. Just as campaign headquarters opened at 8:30 this morning, Captain E. V. Lahr of Team No. 13 came in to report his whole team signed up and a hundred per cent strong and "arearin' to go." The men who have agreed to act with him as team workers are S. A. Floren, A. M. Christianson, J. H. Roberts, Rudy Patzman, W. G. Wingreene and Paul Wachter.

Although Capt. Lahr thus has the honor of getting his team signed up ahead of all the others, he only won the race by a narrow margin, as within fifteen minutes, Capt. F. L. Moule came in and handed in his list. The workers on Team No. 6 with Capt. Moule will be A. J. Arnot, J. P. Wagner, Price Owens, J. A. Flow, George Humphreys and N. O. Church-ill.

GUNMEN HOLD UP 2 IN MINOT

Minot, N. D., Nov. 11.—Two hold-ups were perpetrated by gunmen in Minot early last night.

John Scheuer, 47, Minot butcher,

from severe wounds about the head

pled with his assailant, wrenching
the gun out of his hand.

John Franzosa, was arrested a short time later by a policeman when it was noticed his face bore evidence of fresh wounds. When authorities searched his room in a local hotel they found a revolver and bloody

AUTO SKIDS, ONE KILLED

(By the Associated Press)
Huron, S. D., Nov. 11.—Word was received here this morning of the death of Ralph Mahaffey, formerly in business in Huron, but connected with an insurance company at Sioux Falls, until his death. Mr. Mahaffey was killed near Avon while riding in an automobile with a compan-

Blood Was Spilled in This Clash of Naked Steel

Two of the most famous swordsmen in Italy are shown here fighting with unguarded rapiers. The bout ended when Sastone (left) received a thrust in the left shoulder. The winner was Aurelio Greco. Contestants in these bouts fence with bare arms and the swords are lowered as soon as blood is drawn.

Bismarck High Grad Honored At Purdue "U"

Lafayette, Ind., Nov. 11.—Richard L. Harrison, a Senior in the school of civil engineering at Purdue University is one of the five men chosen for Iron Key, highest honorary Senior fraternity at this institution. This organization bases its membership on all-round ability as evidence by the part taken by the student in all campus activities.
Election to it is considered the highest honor which can come to a student.

Harrison has been active in student affairs since his entrance at the University, at the present time being President of the Purdue Memorial Union, an organization which has for its major purpose the building of a million a quarter dollar student building and the consolidation of all the activities of the campus.
The building is under construction, with nearly $1,000,000 of the proposed amount already raised. In addition to this, Harrison has been very active in athletics running on both the track and cross-country teams, and captaining the former this year. He won his letter in his second year. He is also editor-in-chief of the Engineering Review, a technical publication, which is issued four times a year. He is active in numerous other campus organizations.

D. high school with the class of 1917.

TIGER SAILS FOR AMERICA

(By the Associated Press)

Havre, France, Nov. 11.—Former Premier Georges Clemenceau sailed today for the United States on his self imposed mission of furthering the entente between France and America. The steamship Paris, on which he is a passenger left her pier at 2:35 o'clock this afternoon.

Introducing his brother to the correspondent, Clemenceau said:
"This is the oldest member of the family."

"That's untrue," declared Albert laughing.

"I'm 62 but not even Georges is the oldest in the family. It is one of our sisters and there are five of us living."

A woman correspondent asked
M. Clemenceau for an interview on American women, and he replied:
"What are American women different? At my age all women are the same."

The Tiger smiled at his own remarks and then resumed his talk.

FARM CREDITS AMENDMENT IS PASSED

St. Paul, Minn., Nov. 11.—Adoption of both the constitutional amendments voted on in Tuesday's election was assured today when the complete official returns from Hennepin county materially swelled the majority of favorable votes for the amendments.

With 2,316 precincts out of 3,479
in the state reported, the rural credits amendment had a favorable vote of 373,843 and 50,040 votes were cast against it. The same precincts showed 339,000 for the occupational tax amendment and 60,842 against.
As there are more than 1,000 precincts unreported on the amendments, the passage of both is assured overwhelmingly, as all that is required for adoption is a favorable vote equal to one half the total vote cast for the state office receiving the highest number of votes. So far, the senatorial fight has led the balloting and with less than 100 precincts missing the total vote is 680,- 310.

The rural credits amendment already is safely past the necessary favorable vote mark, and the occupational tax amendment needs only a few thousand more favorable votes in the missing 1,000 precincts for adoption.
